DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless —

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hughes et al, EP 398,724.

Hughes et al, EP 398,724, discloses a process for preparing a water soluble copolymer comprising establishing an initial charge of water, gradually adding 3-65% by weight of a monoethylenically unsaturated dicarboxylic acid containing 4-6 carbon atoms and 35-97% by weight of a monoethylenically unsaturated monocarboxylic acid containing 3-6 carbon atoms, adding a metal salt activator, running the reaction, and recovering the copolymer (see page 3, lines 30-48), per the requirements of the instant invention. It is further taught by Hughes et al that the process for preparing the copolymer includes the step of including a water-soluble initiator system comprising a combination of hydrogen peroxide and sodium persulfate in an amount of 0.5-20% by weight (see page 5, lines 10-20). Specifically, note Examples 1-3, 5, 7, 22-38 and 41. Furthermore, note that the resulting copolymer in Example 1 has a molecular weight of 11,900, a solids content of 39.5%, and a 3-dispersion degree of 2.76, per the requirements of instant claims 3-8, and that Hughes et al discloses that the copolymer is used as an antiscalant, a dispersant, and a detergent (see page 2, lines 7-11), per the requirements of instant claims 11-19. Therefore, instant claims 1-19 are anticipated by Hughes et al, EP 398,724.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
